

13. What strict rule did Luther follow to make sure his teaching followed the correct sequence? (pg 98 bottom)

The Proper Distinction Between Law and Gospel
by CFW Walther
The Eleventh Evening Lecture

1. Which people does Walther say will have the most reason to be terrified on Judgment Day? (pg 87–88)

2. What should every Christian “sincerely dread”? (pg 88 bottom)

3. The Gospel must never be preached prior to what? (pg 89 bottom)

4. What is the second way people sometimes get things out of order? (pg 90 bottom)

5. What is the “third perversion of the true sequence”? (pg 92)

6. What is the fourth “perversion of the correct order” that Walther mentions? (pg 92 bottom)

7. Walther uses the book of Romans as a good example of the correct sequence of teachings. Where does the Law appear in Romans? Justification? Sanctification? (pg 93 bottom)

8. Look at the sermon outlines on pp. 94–95. What do they all have in common?

9. What group did Luther battle, who not only got the sequence wrong, but left out the Law altogether? (pg 96)

10. Hagar was Abraham’s concubine who, with her son Ishmael, was cast out and rejected. But God comforted and cared for them. How are people who hear the Law like Hagar and Ishmael? (pg 97)

11. What kind of person are we all, by nature? (pg 97 middle)

12. Which of the two great doctrines – Law and Gospel – did Luther not have to preach much of, and why? (pg 97 bottom)
