

18. Peter declared to Jesus, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.” Similarly, what language must every Christian use when speaking with God? (pg 221 top.)

19. We sometimes refer to the sins of which even Christians remain subject as “sins of weakness.” Yet how must we be careful not to regard these sins? (pg 221 middle.)

20. The Bible teaching of predestination is abused if we sinners do what with it? (pg 221 middle.)

21. Walther says that Adam and Eve, though among the elect, fell from grace. But what happened subsequently? (pg 221 bottom.)

The Proper Distinction Between Law and Gospel
by CFW Walther
The Twentieth Evening Lecture

1. To a candidate for the public ministry, what is the most precious spot on earth? (pg 207 bottom)

2. What firm determination should every young pastor have when taking up the duties of his first parish? (pg209 middle)

3. What should be the two chief concerns for such a pastor? (pg 209 bottom)

4. Luther did not teach that in order to be saved a person must have faith and, in addition to that, good works. But what did he teach? (pg 210 bottom.)

5. How is Christian faith like a fruit tree? How is Christian faith like the sun? (pg 211 middle.)

6. In what passage does Jesus show that seeking honor of men and believing are incompatible? (pg 211 bottom)

7. People accuse Lutherans, with their doctrine of justification by faith alone, of downplaying good works. How does Walther respond to this accusation? (pg 213 bottom.)

8. When Oliver Cromwell was on his deathbed, what strange question did he ask his chaplain? What false belief did this reveal (pg 215 middle.)

9. Even believers have the sinful flesh. But what will the Holy Spirit not permit sin to do in the heart of the Christian? (pg 216 top.)

10. Is it only gross (big, notorious) sins that are able to extinguish the light of faith? (pg 216 bottom.)

11. In 1536, a certain minister submitted for Luther's review a commentary that contained an error. What was that error? (pg 17 top.)

12. How does Luther respond to this error? How does he define "sinning against one's conscience"? (pg 217 middle.)

13. Sins of weakness remain in every believer. Even these sins are deadly serious! "Still these weaknesses are to be distinguished and placed far away from..." What? (pg 218 top)

14. On this subject, what does Walther say the church has always taught with unanimity? (pg 219 middle.)

15. Under what condition does Walther say a sinner dare not come before God? (pg 219 bottom.)

16. A person will sometimes seek forgiveness when he has insulted someone else. But we would consider such a person insane if he said what? (pg 220 top.)

17. What terrible fate may result when a person continues in sin against his conscience? (pg 220 middle.)
