

All Classes for Report

ClassName	ClassDescription	ClassInstructor	ClassWhenOffered
Applied Music: Organ (1/semester)	One thirty-minute lesson per week. Organ repertoire, techniques, and registration. In-depth study of the problems and techniques required for playing in worship services.	(TBD)	ALL
Applied Music: Piano (1/semester)	One thirty-minute lesson per week. Private instruction in keyboard orientation and technique.	(TBD)	ALL
Art 101: Art Appreciation (3)	Developing awareness and appreciation of sculpture, painting, architecture, and related arts. Emphasis on the ideas and purposes of art with its cultural context. Group study of slide shows in the classroom. Field trip to diverse art venues in Minneapolis	Schierenbeck, D	Even Year Spring
Band (1/semester -- 3 class hours/semester)	Practical course of musical instrument rehearsal and performance.	Gullerud	ALL
Biology 101: Biological Principles (3)	A study of the molecular, cellular, and multicellular levels of biological organization. Includes physiological, genetic, and ecological aspects as they apply to issues of today -- also a critical analysis of theories of origins. Three periods per week,	Rodebaugh	Even Year Spring
Chemistry 102: Introduction to Chemistry (3)	Basic principles of chemistry and their applications. Includes fundamental atomic theory, composition and reactions of matter. Intended for non-science majors with no chemistry background. Three periods per week, laboratory work included.	Rodebaugh	Odd Year Fall
Choir: Choral Music (1/semester -- 2 class hours/semester)	Selected sacred motets, anthems, and choruses for Christmas and spring concert presentations.	Schaller, D	ALL
Computer Science 101: Elementary Computing Concepts (3)	Terminology, workings, use, and care of the computer. Introduction to applications with emphasis on word processing, spreadsheets, desktop publishing, video editing, Internet usage, and web page design.	Roehl	Even Year Fall
Education 102: Introduction to Education (2)	Overview of Christian education in Lutheran elementary schools. General methods and the work of a teacher. Includes orientation.	Roehl	Odd Year Fall
Education 204: History and Philosophy of Education (3)	A study of educational philosophies and practices from Plato to the present. Focus given to helping the students to formulate their personal educational philosophy. Emphasis placed on the requirements of parochial education.	Weis	Odd Year Fall
Education 304A: Instructional Media (1)	Basic principles of equipment operation, techniques used in media preparation, and effective presentation of media.	Roehl	4th Qu Even Yr
Education 304B: Tests and Measurements (1)	Evaluation and administration of standardized tests with review of appropriate terms and needed statistics. Development of teacher-made tests, both diagnostic and achievement.	Lau, J	4th Qu Even Yr
Education 304C: Administration (1)	The Christian day school teacher as school administrator. Procedures in organizing and administering the elementary school. Practical presentation of problems and procedures.	Kranz	4th Qu Even Yr
Education 305: Practical Theology (1)	Biblical principles pertaining to the personal and professional life of a Christian day school teacher as a called servant of the Word in classroom and congregation. Includes study of the CLC confessional documents not contained in the Book of Concord (Br	Ude	4th Qu Odd Yr
Education 306: Educational Psychology (3)	A Christian viewpoint of the data regarding the psychology of learning. Includes as topics the individual differences of students, the learning process, motivation of students, and classroom principles and procedures.	Roehl	Even Year Spring
Education 325: Children's Literature (2)	Study and appraisal of children's books. Procedures for using children's literature. Techniques of reading and telling stories, with practice opportunities provided.	Lau, J	4th Qu Odd Yr
Education 403: Teaching Internship I (4)	Six weeks of supervised teaching in an elementary school of the Church of the Lutheran Confession, with emphasis on preparation for the school year. Two weeks on site during the summer and the first four weeks of classes in the host school.	Roehl	1st Session ALL
Education 404: Teaching Internship II (8)	Nine weeks of supervised teaching in an elementary school of the Church of the Lutheran Confession. Emphasis on classroom instruction as students teach in the host school during the third quarter. Provision made for daily mentoring by the supervising teac	Roehl	3rd Quarter ALL

All Classes for Report

ClassName	ClassDescription	ClassInstructor	ClassWhenOffered
English 101: Composition I (3)	General principles of the writing process, with self-administered grammar review -- up to ten short papers stressing methods of development -- short documented research paper. Reading journals required.	Schierenbeck, D	BOTH Years Fall
English 102: Composition II (3)	Ordinarily sequential to English 101. Reading for understanding. Principles of presenting sources to others -- medium length single-source and multiple-source essays -- medium length research essay. Reading journals required. (Prerequisite: English 101)	Schierenbeck, D	BOTH Years Spring
English 203: Introduction to Fiction (3)	Appreciation and analysis of ideas and their presentation through literary elements and techniques as evidenced in some fifty short stories. Written assignments include formal literary analysis essays. Reading journals required.	Schierenbeck, D	Even Year Fall
English 204: Introduction to Poetry and Drama (3)	Appreciation and analysis of ideas and their presentation through literary elements and techniques as evidenced in a large sampling of poetry, in various short plays, in at least one major drama, and in at least one film. Written assignments include forma	Schierenbeck, D	Odd Year Spring
English 207: Public Speaking (3)	The principles and skills of public speaking, with preparation, presentation, and evaluation of student speeches.	Ude	3rd Qu Odd Yr
English 306: Shakespeare (3)	Reading and critical analysis of the authorÆs selected plays, including comedies, tragedies, and historical plays.	Schierenbeck, D	Even Year Spring
English 407: Milton (3)	A critical reading of Paradise Lost and related materials, with attention to religious and literary content.	Schierenbeck, D	Odd Year Fall
Geography 101: Physical Geography (3)	A writing-intensive course showing the earth as a system. Interactions of weather and climate with systems at the earth's surface. Nature of land forms and the processes that shape and change them.	Kranz	Even Year Fall
Geography 102: Cultural Geography (3)	A writing-intensive course focusing on elements associated with cultural groups. Their principal ways of life, interrelationships with the natural environment, and the diversity of their social and cultural factors.	Kranz	Odd Year Spring
Greek 101: Elementary Greek (5)	New Testament Koine Greek for beginners. Includes a progressive study of basic vocabulary, grammatical forms, and syntax.	Sippert	BOTH Years Fall
Greek 102: Elementary Greek (5)	Continuation of Greek 101, which is prerequisite to Greek 102. Reading of 1 John 1-3.	Sippert	BOTH Years Spring
Greek 203: Intermediate Greek (5)	Reviewing the fundamentals of Koine vocabulary, grammar, and syntax. Reading of 1 John 4-5 -- 2 John and 3 John. (Prerequisite: Greek 101-102)	Sippert	BOTH Years Fall
Greek 204: Intermediate Greek (5)	Completion of the study of Koine grammar and syntax. Vocabulary review and building. Study of main principal parts. Reading of 1 Corinthians 1-6.	Sippert	BOTH Years Spring
Greek 305: Advanced Greek (3)	Reading of 1 Corinthians 7-16 -- Reading of Philippians and 1 Peter. Study of exegetical grammar and syntax to arrive at a text-oriented exegesis.	Schaller, D	Even Year Fall
Greek 306: Advanced Greek (3)	Continuation of Greek 305.	Schaller, D	Odd Year Spring
Greek 407: Advanced Greek (3)	Reading of the Gospel of Luke. Ongoing study and reference to exegetical grammar. Emphasis placed on the grammatical-historical approach to the understanding of the text.	Schaller, D	Odd Year Fall
Greek 408: Advanced Greek (3)	Continuation of Greek 407.	Schaller, D	Even Year Spring
Health 201: Healthful Living (3)	Designed to help the Christian develop well-being physically, mentally, and socially from birth to death. Emphasis on healthful living. Includes first aid and CPR, and drug education through outside reading.	Rodebaugh	Odd Year Spring
Hebrew 101: Elementary Hebrew (5)	Biblical Hebrew for beginners. Includes study of grammatical forms, syntax, and basic vocabulary. Practice given through oral reading, translation, and exercises involving simple prose.	Naumann	BOTH Years Fall
Hebrew 102: Elementary Hebrew (5)	Systematic study of the grammar and syntax of Biblical Hebrew. Translation of selections from Genesis with the learning of vocabulary.	Naumann	BOTH Years Spring
Hebrew 203: Intermediate Hebrew (3)	Review of basic grammar. Study of weak (irregular) verbs. Selected oral readings from the Hebrew Scriptures with translation and verb analysis. Vocabulary building.	Naumann	BOTH Years Fall
Hebrew 204: Intermediate Hebrew (3)	Continuation of Hebrew 203. Critique of Hebrew syntax.	Naumann	BOTH Years Spring

All Classes for Report

ClassName	ClassDescription	ClassInstructor	ClassWhenOffered
History 111: Survey of World History I (3)	A survey of world history to the Reformation.	Weis	Even Year Fall
History 112: Survey of World History II (3)	A survey of world history from the Reformation through modern times.	Weis	Odd Year Spring
History 211: History of the United States to 1877 (3)	A survey of U.S. history: Colonial period, Revolutionary War, nationalism, Jacksonian democracy, sectionalism, Civil War, and Reconstruction.	Lau, J	Odd Year Fall
History 212: History of the United States after 1877 (3)	Continuation of History 211. Industrial growth, westward expansion, revolt of the farmer, Spanish-American War, World War I, the 1920s, the Depression, World War II, the Cold War up to the present. Research paper required.	Lau, J	Even Year Spring
History 251: Church History (3)	A survey of the history of Christianity from apostolic times to the twenty-first century, with emphasis on how God has preserved His truth in the midst of a diversity of errors. Written assignments that include evaluative essays with practical application	Weis	2nd Session Odd Yr
Ind. Study 199: Independent Study for Freshmen (1-6) One to three credits per semester may be earned		(TBD)	ALL
Ind. Study 299: Independent Study for Sophomores (1-6) One to three credits per semester may be earned		(TBD)	ALL
Mathematics 101: Mathematical Ideas (3)	Fundamental ideas of mathematics, including arithmetic, algebra, geometry, logic and sets, statistics, and probability. Not available for credit after any other mathematics course except Mathematics 305.	Roehl	Odd Year Fall
Mathematics 105: College Algebra (4)	Functions and graphing, real and complex numbers, polynomials and rational functions, exponential and logarithmic functions, linear systems, and matrix algebra. (Prerequisite: Two years of high school algebra and one year of high school geometry)	Schierenbeck, J	BOTH Years Fall
Mathematics 106: Trigonometry (4)	Trigonometric functions, identities and equations, law of sines, law of cosines, conic sections, polar coordinates, sequences, series, and probability. (Prerequisite: Mathematics 105)	Schierenbeck, J	BOTH Years Spring
Mathematics 201: Calculus I (4)	Functions, limits, derivatives, definite integral, and applications. (Prerequisite: Satisfactory completion of a pre-calculus course or a college algebra-trigonometry sequence)	Schierenbeck, J	BOTH Years Fall
Mathematics 202: Calculus II (4)	Continuation of Calculus I. Methods of integration, indeterminate forms, sequences and series with tests for convergence and divergence, parametric equations, and polar coordinates. (Prerequisite: Mathematics 201 or equivalent)	Schierenbeck, J	BOTH Years Spring
Mathematics 305: Mathematics for Elementary Teachers (3)	An activities-based approach to elementary mathematical concepts presenting mathematics as a way of thinking rather than a collection of rules. Topics included: problem solving, sets and logic, whole numbers, number theory, integers, fractions, and decimals	Kranz	2nd Session Even Yr
Mathematics 306: Mathematics for Elementary Teachers (3)	A continuation of Mathematics 305. Emphasis on geometric figures, measurement, algebra, functions, statistics, and probability.	Kranz	4th Qu Odd Yr
Methods 321: Language Arts (3)	Principles governing a child's growth in reading. Methods, materials, and procedures in the reading program. Demonstration lessons with peers as the class. Principles underlying the teaching of oral and written expression, handwriting, and speaking. Ins	Kranz	2nd Session Odd Yr
Methods 323: Social Studies (1)	Teaching curriculum and trends in social studies with emphasis on cultural diversity.	Kranz	Odd Year Fall
Methods 324: Science (2)	Teaching science in the elementary school. Methods, materials, trends, and unit development. Includes practicum.	Schierenbeck, J	Even Year Spring
Methods 325: Art (1)	Teaching art in the elementary school. Emphasis on methods, materials, and strategies used in applying the principles and elements of art to classroom instruction. Includes practicum.	Roehl	Even Year Fall
Methods 326: Religion (3)	A study of making religion a living experience for the child in catechism instruction, Bible history, study of hymns, and church history. Demonstration lessons with peers as the class.	Lau, J	2nd Session Even Yr

All Classes for Report

ClassName	ClassDescription	ClassInstructor	ClassWhenOffered
Methods 327: Music (1)	Music in the elementary school. Materials and methods for teaching elementary music. Emphasis placed on the methodology of Kodaly adapted to the Christian elementary school. (Prerequisite: Music 101)	Schaller, D	4th Qu Even Yr
Methods 328: Arithmetic (2)	Trends and changes in the course of study of mathematics in the elementary classroom. Methods and materials for teaching the various areas of mathematics. Development of lesson plans. Includes practicum.	Roehl	Odd Year Spring
Methods 361: Physical Education (1)	Physical training for elementary school pupils. Teaching methods, procedures, and activities for organizing and implementing a program of physical education in the elementary school.	Lau, J	1st Session Even Yr
Music 101: Fundamentals of Music (3)	Elementary theory and the fundamentals of reading and writing music, explored as students are introduced to various methods of teaching music to children.	Schaller, D	Odd Year Fall
Music 102: Introduction to Music Literature (3)	An orientation course intended to give a historical perspective on music that has endured the test of time. Content covered in lecture format with strong emphasis on listening.	Schaller, D	2nd Session Even Yr
Phys. Ed. 101: Beginning Volleyball ( -- 1 class hour)	Fundamental skills of pass, set, spike, dink, and serve. Includes defensive techniques, basic offensive and defensive strategies, and experience in team play.	Lau, J	1st Session Odd Yr
Phys. Ed. 102: Beginning Badminton ( -- 1 class hour)	Fundamental skills of service, clears, smash, drop, and net shots. Includes rules, strategy, and participation in an interclass tournament.	Lau, J	3rd Qu Odd Yr
Psychology 102: General Psychology (3)	Scientific approach to psychology, human development, sensation and perception, learning, thinking, intelligence, memory and forgetting, motivation, personality, abnormal behavior, and approaches to psychotherapy. Written assignments that include evaluati	Weis	Even Year Spring
Psychology 203: Psychology of Growth and Development (3)	The developing child from conception to puberty. Emphasis on biological influences in development -- intelligence and thought -- language -- personality -- and social development as influenced by the family, the peer group, and the school. Written ass	Weis	Odd Year Spring
Religion 101: The Pentateuch (3)	A detailed study of the major events and individuals of the book of Genesis and God's dealings with Israel from the birth of Moses to his death.	Ude	Odd Year Fall
Religion 102: Old Testament (3)	A survey of God's relationship with Israel from the time of Joshua through that of Malachi, with special emphasis upon Messianic prophecies.	Ude	Even Year Spring
Religion 203: Introduction to the Gospels (3)	Studies in the Gospel accounts of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, with focus on various topics pertaining to the work of Jesus Christ and the nature of His kingdom.	(pending)	Even Year Fall
Religion 204: Introduction to Acts and the Epistles (3)	Studies in the growth of the Word of the Lord as detailed in the book of Acts and also a survey of the doctrines presented in the New Testament epistles.	(pending)	Odd Year Spring
Religion 305: Symbolics (3)	A study of the history, development, and contents of the three universal creeds and of the Lutheran Confessions from 1524-1530 (Augsburg Confession and the Apology, Luther's Catechisms).	Ude	Odd Year Fall
Religion 306: Symbolics (3)	A study of the history, development, and contents of the Lutheran Confessions from 1530-1580 (Smalcald Articles, Formula of Concord, and the Book of Concord).	Ude	Even Year Spring
Religion 407: Dogmatics (3)	A study of Christian doctrine, showing its Biblical foundation and its application to Christian life. Subject matter studied: Scripture, God, man, Christ, conversion, justification, and sanctification.	Ude	Even Year Fall
Religion 408: Dogmatics (3)	A study of Christian doctrine, showing its Biblical foundation and its application to Christian life. Subject matter studied: the means of grace, Law and Gospel, the sacraments, the church, election, and eschatology.	Ude	Odd Year Spring
Science 101: Physical Science and Man (3)	An introduction to the field of astronomy studied from a Christian perspective, including historical astronomy, celestial mechanics, universe structure, solar system components, stars, and secular cosmologies. Also a study of some of the fundamental princ	Schierenbeck, J	Odd Year Fall
Sociology 101: Introduction to Sociology (3)	Sociological perspective. Social organization, inequality, and institutions. The culturally diverse society.	Lau, J	Even Year Fall

